

Integrable flows on discrete Kurves

TIM HOFFMANN¹ <hoffmann@mathematik.uni-muenchen.de>

Integrable flows (with continuous and discrete time) on polygons in the plane and 3 space are derived together with their Darboux transformations. These flows correspond to well known integrable equations such as (m)KdV equation or nonlinear Schrödinger equation.

¹ Mathematisches Institut der Universität München